Open fire prohibitions in force in Coastal Fire Centre

PARKSVILLE – Despite open burning prohibitions being implemented in the Coastal Fire Centre (with the exception of Haida Gwaii and the area known as the “Fog Zone”), the BC Wildfire Service continues to receive reports of the current campfire ban being ignored by members of the public.

Between July 15 and 17, 2017, over 50 illegal campfires were reported to the Coastal Fire Centre. In light of these reports, enforcement will be stepped up with increased patrols by both the Compliance and Enforcement Branch and the Conservation Officers Service. Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers are also authorized to issue violation tickets under the Wildfire Act and Wildfire Regulation.

Enforcement officers will be patrolling areas with a history of open burn violations to issue tickets to people participating in any prohibited activity. A ticket for “lighting, fuelling or use of fire against regulations” carries a fine of $1,150 and would apply to every person in the vicinity of the fire.

Where open fires are prohibited, the following activities are also prohibited:

- Open fires of woody debris in outdoor stoves
- Tiki torches, fireworks, firecrackers, sky lanterns, burning barrels or burning cages of any size or description
- The use of binary exploding targets (e.g. for rifle target practice)

The current prohibition does not apply to CSA-rated or ULC-rated cooking stoves that use gas, propane or briquettes, or to a portable campfire apparatus that uses briquettes, liquid or gaseous fuel, so long as the height of the flame is less than 15 centimetres.

If violations of open fire prohibitions continue, the B.C. government may choose to close problematic recreation sites to the public. The Coastal Fire Centre would like to remind the public about applicable fines for open burning violations:

- Section 2, Fail to report fire: $383
- Section 3 (1), Drop, release or mishandle burning substance: $575
- Section 3 (2), Fail to extinguish burning substance: $575
- Section 5 (1), Light, fuel or use fire against regulations: $1,150
- Section 5 (2) (a), Fail to extinguish fire: $575
- Section 5 (2) (b), Fail to report fire: $575

Anyone who lights, fuels or uses an open fire when a fire prohibition is in place or fails to comply with an open fire prohibition may be issued a ticket for $1,150 or, if convicted in court, be fined up to $100,000 and/or sentenced to one year in jail. If the contravention causes or contributes to a wildfire, the person responsible may be subject to a penalty of up to $100,000 and ordered to pay all firefighting and associated costs.
